DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S COMMENT

Applicant's after-final amendment, mailed 3-13-01 (Paper No. 13), is acknowledged. In view of said after-final amendment, all outstanding rejections have been withdrawn.

Claims 29, 30, 33, 34, 36 and 39-40 have been renumbered as claims 1-7, respectively.

Formal drawings and/or photographs have been submitted which fail to comply with 37 CFR 1.84. Please see the form PTO-948 attached to the office action mailed 9-13-00 (Paper No. 11).

The document by Benedict et al which was listed on the 1449 form filed 9-21-98, was previously not considered because it was absent from the application file. However, said document has now been considered in view of the applicant's sending said document, and a xerox copy of the 1449 form showing the consideration of the document by Benedict et al is attached to the instant office action.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

Claims 29, 30, 33, 34, 36 and 39-40 are pending in this application and allowed.

The prior art does not teach or suggest a method of inhibiting clot formation but which does not significantly interfere with hemostasis when administered with blood to which an inactive recombinant mutein of the active site of wild type Factor IX or Factor IXa which results in a reduced ability to convert Factor X to Factor Xa, has been added. Accordingly, the instant claims are deemed allowable. It is noted that Brandstallar et al teach the structure of Factor IXa to gain an understanding of the structure function relationship of this factor as it pertains to various mutant forms of this factor, however, Brandstallar et al do not teach or fairly suggest that one should provide mutant forms of Factor IX or IXa which inhibit clot formation but do not significantly interfere with homeostasis when added to blood administered to a patient.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments
